What is Zotero?

- It is a paper manager (bibliographic data and PDF files)
- It is free* and open source
- It is powerful with large degree of freedom for customization

The plan

- I will not cover
  - “How to organize papers”
- I will talk about
  - Zotero as a tool for organizing papers
  - i.e.: the pipeline of
    - Getting the papers from journals
    - Organize the papers in a folder structure
    - Cite the papers
  - My workflow as “what is possible?”

Importing papers: from web

- Zotero Connector
- A browser plug-in for easy import of papers from journal website
- It works on the google scholar page as well, but it will not grab the PDFs.

Zotero automatically redirected your request to journals.ametsoc.org through the proxy at proxy.library.nyu.edu.

- It also automatically redirect journal website through saved proxy (e.g.: the NYU library proxy)

Importing papers: from PDF

- Just drag and drop
- Does not work 100%, especially for old papers
- Potentially useful plug-in: Zotero Folder Import

- It works to add them as Zotero items
- Then one could ask Zotero to find the PDF

The screenshot shows the Zotero interface with a list of items on the left, a context menu open over a selected item, and a 'Find Available PDFs' dialog box in the foreground.

Item List:

Importing papers: from other software

- From Mendeley: link
- From Endnote: link
- From Papers 3 (unofficial): link
- From other apps: link

Organizing papers: into folders

- Sort the papers into folders within Zotero and (the PDFs) locally

Plug-in: Zotfile

- Rename and move the local PDF files
  - Folders follows the structure in Zotero
  - Name the files according to the citation information (e.g.: author, year, title)

Location of Files

ZotFile can move new and existing attachments to different locations. You can either store a copy of your attachment files in Zotero, which allows you to sync files to the Zotero server, or move the file to a custom folder and link to that location from Zotero

Attach stored copy of file(s)

Custom Location:

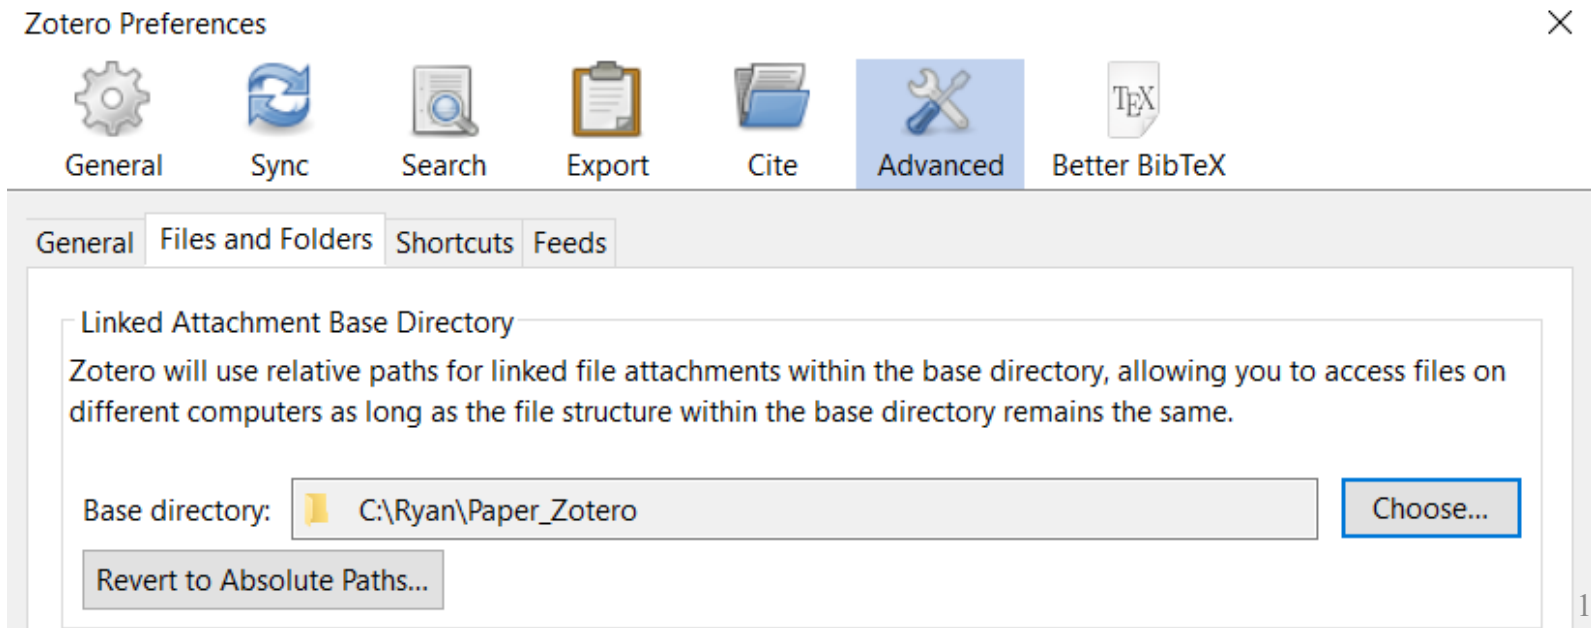

Use subfolder defined by

Format for all Item Types except Patents

{%F_}{%y_}{%t}

Zotfile for syncing over machines

- For free! (Here is a detailed tutorial)
- Sync the PDFs using a cloud service
- Set Zotero to look for them using a relative path
- This also gives you easy access to your PDFs on tablets

Citing papers: Better BibTeX

- Zotero works for generating .bib entries
  - But it will include all fields including abstract...
- Better BibTeX let's you do so much more
  - Customize the .bib output

When an item has both a DOI and a URL, export  ⓘ

Fields to omit from export (comma-separated):

Include JabRef-specific metadata:  ⓘ

- Generate unique citation keys following preferred pattern

Citation key format

Force citation key to plain text

Enable citation key search

Plug-in: Zutilo

- I use it to assign shortcut to:

- Copy the .bib entry
- Copy the \cite{...} command
- Copy the formatted citation in my preferred format

QuickCopy items	Copying	Ctrl+Shift+C
QuickCopy items (alt 1)	Copying	Ctrl+Shift+A
QuickCopy items (alt 2)	Copying	Ctrl+Shift+D

- To set this up is not trivial

- You have to venture to the “Config Editor”
- I could not find a good guide for it. This post is a start.

- It could also expand the options in the right-click menu

Citing Papers: Example

- See the LaTeX example.
